

Sentence Types
for pupils in
Key Stage 1.

ORMESBY PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Sentence Types
for pupils in
Key Stage 1.

ORMESBY PRIMARY SCHOOL.

ORMESBY PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Sentence Types
for pupils in
Key Stage 1.

ORMESBY PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Sentence Types
for pupils in
Key Stage 1.

A BOYS Sentence.

Two simple sentences that are joined together with a conjunction (joining word), for example but, or, yet, so and include a comma.

For example:
He was a friendly boy most of the time, but he could become nasty.

A 2A Sentence.

This is a sentence that has two adjectives separated by a comma followed by a noun.

For example:
He was a tall, old man.

Here are the main sentence types that your child will be taught in Year 1 and 2:

Here are the main sentence types that your child will be taught in Year 1 and 2:

A 2A Sentence.

This is a sentence that has two adjectives separated by a comma followed by a noun.

For example:
He was a tall, old man.

A BOYS Sentence.

Two simple sentences that are joined together with a conjunction (joining word), for example but, or, yet, so and include a comma.

For example:
He was a friendly boy most of the time, but he could become nasty.

A BOYS Sentence.

Two simple sentences that are joined together with a conjunction (joining word), for example but, or, yet, so and include a comma.

For example:
He was a friendly boy most of the time, but he could become nasty.

A 2A Sentence.

This is a sentence that has two adjectives separated by a comma followed by a noun.

For example:
He was a tall, old man.

Here are the main sentence types that your child will be taught in Year 1 and 2:

Here are the main sentence types that your child will be taught in Year 1 and 2:

A 2A Sentence.

This is a sentence that has two adjectives separated by a comma followed by a noun.

For example:
He was a tall, old man.

A BOYS Sentence.

Two simple sentences that are joined together with a conjunction (joining word), for example but, or, yet, so and include a comma.

For example:
He was a friendly boy most of the time, but he could become nasty.

Question Sentences.

Sentences that contain a question, or many questions, to ask the reader something.
For example:
What time is it?
How many days are there in a week?

Question Sentences.

Sentences that contain a question, or many questions, to ask the reader something.
For example:
What time is it?
How many days are there in a week?

Speech Sentences.

Sentences that contain speech to show what is being said and by whom. The spoken words are held inside speech marks.
For example:
"Look out!" Michael yelled.

Speech Sentences.

Sentences that contain speech to show what is being said and by whom. The spoken words are held inside speech marks.
For example:
"Look out!" Michael yelled.

Speech Sentences.

Sentences that contain speech to show what is being said and by whom. The spoken words are held inside speech marks.

For example:

"Look out!" Michael yelled.

Speech Sentences.

Sentences that contain speech to show what is being said and by whom. The spoken words are held inside speech marks.

For example:

"Look out!" Michael yelled.

Question Sentences.

Sentences that contain a question, or many questions, to ask the reader something.

For example:

What time is it?

How many days are there in a week?

Question Sentences.

Sentences that contain a question, or many questions, to ask the reader something.

For example:

What time is it?

How many days are there in a week?

In addition to these main sentences types, other sentences may be taught if the class teacher feels it is appropriate.

For Example:
Suddenly, the door burst open and in ran the frightened shopkeeper.

Sentences that begin with an adverb.

Adverb Sentences.

In addition to these main sentences types, other sentences may be taught if the class teacher feels it is appropriate.

For Example:
Suddenly, the door burst open and in ran the frightened shopkeeper.

Sentences that begin with an adverb.

Adverb Sentences.

For Example:
The waves crashed angrily onto the golden beach.

A simple sentence with:
A powerful verb
An adjective
An adverb

A Short Descriptive Sentence.

For Example:
The waves crashed angrily onto the golden beach.

A simple sentence with:
A powerful verb
An adjective
An adverb

A Short Descriptive Sentence.

A Short Descriptive Sentence.

A simple sentence with:
A powerful verb
An adjective
An adverb

For Example:

The waves crashed angrily onto the golden beach.

A Short Descriptive Sentence.

A simple sentence with:
A powerful verb
An adjective
An adverb

For Example:

The waves crashed angrily onto the golden beach.

Adverb Sentences.

Sentences that begin with an adverb.
For Example:
Suddenly, the door burst open and in ran the frightened shopkeeper.

In addition to these main sentences types, other sentences may be taught if the class teacher feels it is appropriate.

Adverb Sentences.

Sentences that begin with an adverb.
For Example:
Suddenly, the door burst open and in ran the frightened shopkeeper.

In addition to these main sentences types, other sentences may be taught if the class teacher feels it is appropriate.